

LUMBER MEN WANT NEW TRIAL

ELEVEN AGAINST WHICH DECREE IS ABSOLUTE SEEK A MODIFICATION.

JUDGES ALL OF ONE MIND

Some of the Companies Think the Fines Are Too Large and Cite Standard Oil Case as Precedent for New Hearing.

Jefferson City.—The next move of the big lumber companies, 11 of which were ousted absolutely and 13 conditionally, and one of which was penalized by fine, will be to file a motion for rehearing, which they must do within 10 days.

The companies absolutely ousted will file a motion for modification of the ouster judgment and reduction of the fines imposed and, with this, suggestions touching the charges of conspiracy against them.

The companies conditionally ousted will file a motion for a reduction of the fines imposed. Both are likely to make comparisons with the fines levied against the Standard Oil company and its subsidiary concerns, which were regarded as the most flagrant violators of the anti-trust laws of this state yet proceeded against.

How the Judges Stood.
Five judges concurred in the Faris opinion absolutely. Judge John C.
Brown did not sit in the cases, and Judge Woodson concurred in the entire opinion except that feature outing absolutely 11 companies.

The opinion convicting these lumber corporations was 87 pages of closely typewritten matter, one of the longest opinions ever handed down by the court.

Because of the length of the opinion, it was several hours after it was handed down before it was made clear just which companies were ousted and to which the option was given to remain if they paid up and obeyed the law. Early reports were incorrect in this regard.

Santa Claus at Pen.
Jefferson City.—The convicts in Missouri penitentiary dined upon turkey at 2 o'clock Christmas day. At the dinner 2,500 pounds of turkey were served with the customary accessories.

Following is the dinner menu: Roast turkey and dressing, 2,500 pounds; white bread, 700 loaves; cranberry sauce, one barrel; potatoes, 40 bushels; tomatoes, 10 cases; butter, 100 pounds; ginger snaps and coffee.
For breakfast Christmas they had hash, hot rolls, butter and coffee, and for supper cold meats, syrup, white bread, potatoes and coffee. The prisoners were given the liberty of the yards during the day and permitted to indulge in all kinds of sports and games except gambling. Two moving picture exhibitions were given. There are 2,467 men and 61 women in the penitentiary.

Woman Wins Land Suit.
Jefferson City.—In the delivery of opinions by the state supreme court en banc was one by Judge C. B. Faris affirming in part and reversing in part the judgment of the lower court in the case of the Morgan County Coal company versus Haldeman. This case involved a deal in which the sale of 5,111 acres of land in Morgan county figured.

The land was sold by Mrs. Anna B.
Haldeman of Versailles to the coal company for $55 an acre.

The purchasing company paid a part of price and gave notes for the remainder. After a lapse of several years the company brought suit to an-null the contract under which the land was bought, on the ground that Mrs.
Haldeman had misrepresented the mineral possibilities of the tract.

Judge Faris directed a judgment of $31,920 in favor of Mrs. Haldeman and affirmed the validity of the contract. The purchasers waited too long to institute their action to annul the contract.

Road Bond Tax Case Jan. 15.
Jefferson City.—Assistant Attorney-General W. T. Rutherford, who has returned from Washington, says the hearing of the appeal from the decision of the treasury authorities holding school road district and drainage district bonds issued in Missouri are subject to the income tax law, has been postponed until Jan. 15.

state public service commission relative to the gas situation in Kansas

STUDENTS IN BIG MEETING

Convention of Volunteer Movement in Kansas City Draws Men From All Over the World.

Kansas City.—Several thousand noted educators and churchmen, from 46 states and 70 foreign countries, are in Kansas City for the Student Volunteer Movement convention. In point of attendance and enthusiasm this is the largest gathering which the Student Volunteer movement has yet held.

One of the most interesting of the notables at the convention is Robt P.
Wildor, the founder of the movement. Mr. Wildor and other students formed the first Student Volunteer band. It was through his influence and activity at the first conference of Christian students, which was held in Mount Harmon, Mass., in 1886, that the Student Volunteer movement was founded. He was the organization's first traveling secretary, has spent many years in India as a missionary and more recently has been working among the students of Europe.

Many eminent men will address the convention and several social affairs have been announced.

THE FARMERS MAKE MONEY

The Government Estimates Value of Products for 1913 at Ten Billion Dollars.

Washington.—Ten billion dollars' worth of products, 5 billion dollars of cash income—a bumper year in spite of the drouths and other setbacks—is the 1913 record of 6 million American farms.

The most successful year of husbandry in the United States brought forth 6,100 million dollars' worth of crops, of which 2,896 million dollars were represented by cereals alone, and 3,650 million dollars' worth of animals sold and slaughtered and animal products.

The value of the 1913 crops is twice as great as that of 1899, more than a billion dollars more than 1909 and substantially greater than 1912. Of all the crops, however, it is estimated that 52 per cent will remain on farms where they were produced and that 20 per cent of the animal production will remain. On that basis the cash income is estimated by the Department of Agriculture at 5,847 million dollars.

MAY PROBE THE MOYER CASE

Representative MacDonald in Michigan Strike District Gathering Evidence to Submit to Congress.

Washington.—Advocates of a congressional probe of the Calumet strike asserted that the deportation of President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners would furnish them with the necessary evidence of a deprivation of constitutional rights to justify the House rules committee in reporting the resolution of MacDonald of Michigan.

Representative MacDonald is in the Michigan strike region. Senator Martine of New Jersey said he had already taken up the matter tentatively with Senator Kern. The MacDonald resolution is sufficiently broad to cover the Moyer deportation case and it was believed the advocates of a federal inquiry would prefer to have it made by a House rather than Senate committee.

HIS CHILDREN UP FOR SALE

St. Louis Man Offers His Boy and Girl for $1,000 and $2,000 Respectively.

St. Louis.—Stephen Godo, 4210 Sarpay avenue, wants to sell his children. He advertised them for sale in St. Louis newspapers.

Godo's only possessions are his daughter, Margaret, 8 years old, and a son, Stephen, 6 years old. Godo's price on Margaret is $2,000 and on Stephen $1,000.

"I am a poor man," he said. "I am unable to take care of the children in the way I would like to. So I decided to offer them for sale. You see, I think I ought to have something to console me for their loss. And, then, I am getting older and need a good home myself."

Starts 1914 With a Million.

Bartlesville, Okla.—To fall heir to an estate of one million dollars will be the New Year's gift of George B.
Moras, a Bartlesville man. Moras has received notice his aunt, Mrs. Minnie Moras, had died in New York City, leaving him this sum.

army of Paraguay is to be undertaken by German officers, eight of whom have signed a contract to serve in Paraguay three years.

Housework is a Burden

The daily cares of keeping house and bringing up a family are hard enough for a healthy woman. The tired, weak mother who struggles from morn to night with a lame, aching back is carrying a heavy burden.

Many women believe that urinary disorders and backache are "female troubles" and must be endured. But men suffer the same aches and troubles when the kidneys are sick.

Women are especially subject to kidney disease. Tight clothing, indoor work, the ordeals of childbirth, the worry, and the stooping, straining and striving of housework all help to bring it on. At first the trouble may be only backache, sick headache, dizziness and a drowsy, dull languid feeling, but this condition is dangerous to neglect, for dropsy, gravel and deadly Bright's disease start in some such small way.

Don't be discouraged. When backache, nervousness and irregular or painful passages of the kidney secretions begin to bother you, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has brought new life and strength to thousands of suffering women. There are no poisonous nor narcotic drugs in

"Oh! What a pain."

Doan's Kidney Pills—nothing to injure nor cause a habit. Delicate women can use them with perfect safety.

The following case is typical of the cures effected by Doan's Kidney Pills. Grateful testimony is the best evidence.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR HOURS

Michigan Woman Tells of Awful Suffering

Mrs. George Dolsen, Inkster, Mich., says: "Following the birth of my third child, I began to notice signs of kidney trouble. I had terrible, bearing-down pains through the small of my back and my blood was filled with uric acid. My limbs, ankles and feet swelled twice their natural size and a finger pressure left a dent for hours. My sight was affected, my head dizzy and I would lie for hours unconscious. I got so thin that no one would have recognized me. The kidney secretions contained white, fatty substances and if allowed to stand became thick. I had a doctor and he said my kidneys weren't filtering the impurities from my system. Nothing had the least effect, in fact, I was getting worse. My sister brought me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and when I found they were helping me, I kept on taking them. I got stronger, my kidneys began to act right and the swelling went down. The headaches and dizzy spells left me. I picked up in weight and the pains disappeared. I was able to take care of my housework, feeling like a different woman. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve every bit of credit for curing me."

JUST WANTED TO GET AWAY

Manner in Which Rates Were Mounting Up Decided Tourist to Seek Another Domicile.

A young man who was with a party of motor tourists making a trip through the mountains decided to stop over in an attractive place for a few days and went into the hotel to ascertain the rates.

"What are your rates?" he inquired.
"Seven dollars a day, sir," was the reply.

"If I stay," went on the man, "I shall want a room on the parlor floor."
"That will cost you $1 extra," said the clerk.

"I shall also want a room with a fireplace, where I can have a fire these chilly evenings."

"One dollar more, sir."

"And, of course," said the tourist, "I want one with a bath also."

"One dollar additional, sir."

"Well," said the man, thoughtfully, "how much will you charge to let me leave the hotel just as I am?"—Pulitzer Magazine.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

Strange Pig.

Five-year-old George had spent the summer in the country, where he was much interested in a neighbor's pig and cow. On his return to his city home he was asked what he liked in the country.

"I like Mr. Johnson's pig best."

"Ah! How many pigs has Mr. Johnson?"

"Two."

"What color are Mr. Johnson's pigs?"

"One pig is white."

"What color is the other pig?"

"The other pig's a cow."—Youth's Companion.

Mixed Principles.

"How seldom nowadays you see men in the street cars give up their seats to women."

"No, they seem to make it their standing rule to keep sitting."

The man who follows his inclination never gets very far from the bottom of the ladder.

Chilling Grace.

The leading church in a certain town in Indiana recently acquired as its pastor a grave and solemn divine from Boston.

Shortly after his arrival the new minister dined with the town's leading merchant. The effect upon the family of the Bostonian's solemn demeanor is best evidenced by a remark in regard thereto made by the eight-year-old boy of the house.

That night, as the lad's mother was bidding him good-night, he said:
"Ma, it took a long time, didn't it, to feel cheerful again after Doctor Blank had said grace?"

When the King Has a Cold.

The royal families of Europe are suffering from a wave of influenza.

"His baddesty has a sneezing code," the chief flunkey announces to the ambassador, "ad begs to be excused."

"You seem to have something of a cold yourself," said the distinguished caller.

"Be?" cried the flunkey. "Oh, dough, I aid got no code. This is just a royal imitation. Whed the kig sneezes the palace sneezes with hib."

Wanted Things Complete.

There was a rumpus at the children's breakfast table, and on coming down to see what it was all about the mistress of the house found the little ones crying out for spoons to eat their eggs with.

She rang the bell sharply, and when the maid, who was fresh to service, appeared she reproved her thus:

"Mary, Mary, when you lay eggs in future be careful to lay eggspoons also."

Worse.

Mrs. Exe—I hate a man who says, "I told you so" after you've made a mistake. Does your husband ever say that to you?

Mrs. Wye—Never. What he says is: "And yet I was wholly unable to make you perceive, although it was perfectly clear to my own mind that such would be the inevitable outcome."

She Didn't Know.

Uncouth Young Man—May I kiss you, Miss Jones?

Miss Jones (indignantly)—What do you mean, sir?

U. Y. M. (surprised)—Don't you know a kiss is yet? Well, you are the funniest girl I ever saw.—Good Evening.

At the Breakfast Table.

"I have a vague yearning for something," murmured the poet. "A constant yearning for something; I know not what."

"Maybe it's true," suggested the sympathetic landlady. "We haven't had any in a long time."

Part Payment.

Grain Dealer—You owe me three dollars for oats, Jim. If you don't pay me I'll have to take your horse.

Uncle Jim—All right, suh. And I'll pay yo' de balance o' de three dollars just as soon as I kin.—Puck.

Like Effects.

"How did the lawyer manage to pin the witness down?"
"By his needle-like penetration."

Their Defect.

"What do you think of these possessed headle stories?"
"Oh, only so, so."

The Cause.

"You made a wry face at that drink."
"Well, it was a rye drink."

400,000 Settlers a Year

Immigration figures show that the population of Canada increased during 1913, by the addition of 400,000 new settlers from the United States and Europe. Most of these have gone on farms in provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Lord William Percy, an English Nobleman, says:

"The possibilities and opportunities offered by the Canadian West are so infinitely greater than those which exist in England, that it seems absurd to think that people should be impeded from coming to the country where they can most easily and certainly improve their position."

New districts are being opened up, which will make accessible a great number of homesteads in districts especially adapted to mixed farming and grain raising.
